"Blithe Spirit," a light, sophisticated comedy by Noel Coward, will be presented at the D.B. Clarke Theatre at Sir George Williams Campus of Concordia University, 1455 de Maisonneuve West, from February 25 to 29, at 8:00 P.M.

This spirited farce, taking place in England in the late 1930s, centers around a successful novelist, Charles Condomine who is involved with mediums and who is trying to cope with the spirit of his dead wife who has come to haunt him and his second wife. In the climax, Charles is frantically trying to rid himself of the unwelcome ghost who now wants to kill him in order to spend the rest of eternity with him in blissful togetherness.
